

abstract

Report related to the Tsunami damages from Great East Japan Earthquake

Industrial Structure in the affected area (Manufacturing, Whole Sales, Agriculture, Fishery)

As we all witnessed through the media coverage, the aftermath damages and impacts from the Great East Japan Earthquake Tsunami were paramount and still is severely affecting the area especially in the Industrial Structure of the affected areas. In this report, we have gathered data on the certain prefectures that were the most affected such as Iwate Prefecture, Miyagi Prefecture and Fukushima Prefecture.

These data is based on the publically offered by the Ministry of Economy, the Ministry of Agriculture, the Forestry, and the Fisheries of Japan. Please refer to the each specified item. The actual size of the flooded areas are sorted by the affected cities accordingly.

Refer to the graph shown in below.

Manufacturing Industries, Whole sale Industries

Pref.	Manufacturing Industries		Whole sale Industries
	Total number of employees affected area	% ( employees in the affected area / total employees in this industry within the pref. )	Total number of employees affected area	% ( employees in the affected area / total employees in this industry within the pref. )
Iwate	13,129	15.0%	3,035	11.1%
Miyagi	38,074	32.7%	11,590	15.6%
Fukushima	686	0.4%	79	0.2%

Agriculture Industries, Fishery Industries

Pref.	Agriculture Industries		Fishery Industries
	Total number of the farms affected	% ( the affected farms / total farms in the pref. )	Total number of the fishery affected	% ( the affected fishery / total fishery in the pref. )
Iwate	2,881	3.8%	5,100	96.0%
Miyagi	19,550	17.1%	3,990	99.6%
Fukushima	4,892	5.1%	740	99.6%

Also the below stated data is available.

Manufacturing industries”	The data including the number of the employees in specific area, the companies, the gross production, and its ratio against tsunami affected area versus the specific prefecture.
Commercial industries	The data including the number of employees in sales and commercial industries, gross sales, and its ratio against tsunami affected area versus the specific prefecture.
Agriculture industries	The data of the damage including the number of the farms, employees, total agricultural areas that were damaged by tsunami.
Fishery industries	The data including the number of companies, fishing boats, processing factories, refrigerating and freezing factories, etc. in the tsunami affected area.

For a complete research report or request of a specific research report customizing your topic please contact CIRCLIDGE ( <http://circlidge.com> ) directly.